PROFILE

Software developer with 6+ years of experience building websites, cross-platform apps, and intelligent systems — from the front-end interface to the back-end server and AI models. I turn ideas into working, real-world products that solve real problems.

SELECTED PROJECTS

Smart Exam Platform

AI · EDUCATION

An AI-powered platform that lets a private tutor run online homework and exams from home with no room for cheating and instant grading. The tutor sets the difficulty and topic; the AI generates a passage and questions in multiple formats (true/false, multiple-choice, written) derived from the text itself.

→ Student dashboard & reports, real student authentication, and Telegram lesson reminders.

Golden Weave — ERP

ENTERPRISE SYSTEM

An ERP system for a textile manufacturer: instant view of available resources at one click, machine-maintenance scheduling, and automated PDF reports.

→ Saved the company hours of manual work every day.

Mozaik Offset

3D WEB · I18N

Rebuilt a packaging company's website: replaced flat 2D product images with an interactive 3D product viewer (Three.js), improved UX and accessibility, and added three languages.

→ Customers can now inspect products in full 3D.

3D Interactive Portfolio

THREE.JS

A personal portfolio built around a 3D robot character (Three.js / FBX) with directional page navigation and per-section theming.

→ Live, fully interactive web experience.

CyberLearn

FLUTTER · DESKTOP

A Windows desktop application that teaches cybersecurity concepts through structured, interactive lessons.

Also: Network Load Tester (Android network stress-testing) · Multi-agent Forex analysis tools.
